Q-1 Read the passage and answer the following questions:-

(5 marks)

In a small town surrounded by hills, there lived a kind farmer named Ramesh. He had a large farm where he grew vegetables, fruits, and grains. Ramesh worked hard every day, watering his plants, feeding the animals, and taking care of the farm. He had two cows, three goats, and a flock of hens that provided fresh milk and eggs for his family. Every Sunday, Ramesh would visit the local market to sell his produce. People from the town loved buying from him because his fruits and vegetables were always fresh and healthy.

One day, there was a big storm, and Ramesh's farm was badly damaged. Many of his crops were destroyed, and some trees had fallen. Ramesh felt very sad but did not lose hope. With the help of his neighbors, he cleaned the farm, replanted the crops, and fixed the damaged fences. Everyone in the town admired his determination and kindness. Soon, Ramesh's farm was back to its original beauty, and he continued to provide fresh produce to the town.
