Stand I tall, upon this ground, Roots of self, where pride is found.

In every step, every breath I take, My soul, my essence, none can fake. From the mountains high to the rivers deep, Where forefathers lie and legacies keep, My nation's story, woven in my vein, With every triumph and each pain.

Hand to heart, where dreams are sown, In my land's soil, where I have grown.

Flags unfurl, anthems rise, In my chest, a proud heart lies.
