One morning, Sameer woke up to the sound of heavy rain. He put on his raincoat and boots and went outside to enjoy the monsoon. The streets were full of puddles, and he jumped into each one with joy. He noticed the smell of wet soil and saw worms coming out after the rain. Birds were perched under trees, waiting for the rain to stop. Sameer decided to help his mother by bringing buckets of rainwater to water the plants in the garden. Later, he and his friends made paper boats and floated them in the puddles, racing them against each other. By the evening, the rain stopped, and a rainbow appeared in the sky. Sameer felt that the day had been full of fun, learning, and excitement.

A. Answer the following questions

1. What did sameer do after waking up?
